CONGRATULATING THE PEOPLE OF TAIWAN FOR SUCCESSFUL CONCLUSION OF PRESIDENTIAL ELECTIONS AND REAFFIRMING UNITED STATES POLICY TOWARD TAIWAN AND PEOPLE'S REPUBLIC OF CHINA

SPEECH OF

HON. THOMAS M. DAVIS

OF VIRGINIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, March 28, 2000

Mr. DAVIS of Virginia. Mr. Speaker, I rise to support H. Con. Res. 292, Congratulating Taiwan on Its Recent Elections.

The government of Taiwan is a representative democracy. On March 18, 2000, the citizens of the Republic of China (ROC) on Taiwan exercised their right to vote and elected Mr. Chen Shui-bian as their new President and Ms. Annette Hsui-Lien Lu as the new Vice-President. The popular vote election was held in accordance with the ROC's Constitution and the people of Taiwan turned out in record numbers to vote. Over 82 percent of Taiwan's 15 million citizens voted, making it one of the highest turnouts ever.

EXTENSIONS OF REMARKS

Despite rhetoric and brinkmanship from the mainland, the people of Taiwan have clearly expressed their determination to build a free and democratic society. The U.S. should continue our strong support for Taiwan's security.

Taiwan is and continues to be a strong U.S. ally. The people of Taiwan have voted their conscience. Given the events that have happened over the past several years, it is in America's best interest to promote peace in the Taiwan Straits.

The people of Taiwan should be congratulated for the democratic outcome of its presidential election. In addition, I hope that all of my colleagues will join me in congratulating the people of Taiwan for their continuing efforts to develop and sustain a free, democratic society that not only respects human rights but embraces free markets as well.

This election again demonstrates that Taiwan is a vibrant democracy and I look forward to working with the new government of President-elect Chen Shui-bian on issues of mutual concern.

TRIBUTE TO MACON-BIBB COUNTY FIRE CHIEF JIMMY HINSON

HON. SAXBY CHAMBLISS

OF GEORGIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, April 4, 2000

Mr. CHAMBLISS. Mr. Speaker, today I want to recognize a great American and someone who has continuously served as Chief of the Macon-Bibb County Fire Department for the past 24 years, Jimmy Earl Hinson.

Chief Hinson began fighting fires in 1961, and, as Chief, he was instrumental in turning the Macon-Bibb County Fire Department into a Class One department. His leadership, integrity, and compassion are well known, and his retirement is a deep loss to our community.

We owe a tremendous debt of gratitude to Chief Hinson for his commitment and hard work, for putting his life on the line to protect and serve the people of Macon and Bibb County, and for being an exemplary model of strength and honor.

It is people like Chief Hinson who keep our families and neighborhoods safe, who work hard each and every day for our protection, and who teach us about the importance of fire safety to whom we owe our sincerest appreciation. I thank Chief Hinson and wish him all the best in his retirement.

CONGRATULATING LAMAR UNIVERSITY'S MENS BASKETBALL TEAM

HON. NICK LAMPSON

OF TEXAS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, April 4, 2000

Mr. LAMPSON. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to congratulate Lamar University's Mens Basketball team for their success this season and their return to the NCAA Tournament. Their return to March Madness took 17 years, but they made alumni like myself and fans of the basketball program proud.

This was Lamar's fifth trip to the tournament, and the first since the 1983 season. Lamar finished the season with a 15-16 record, and headed down the road to tournament competition with a victory at the CenturyTel Southland Basketball Classic. In their first game in the Classic, the No. 7 seeded Cardinals triumphed over the No. 2 seed Louisiana-Monroe with a 66-62 win. They then went on to win games against Southwest Texas and Northwestern State to capture the tournament.

Lamar had the unfortunate luck to draw the No. 1 team in the country, the Duke Blue Devils, as their first round opponent in the Big Dance. However, the underdogs from Texas put up a fight, and gave Duke a run for their money. Mike Dean, the first year Lamar coach, and the fans who made the trip could only be pleased with the grit and determination with which the team played.

Mr. Speaker, the members of the basketball team from my Alma Mater made me proud, and it is truly an honor to recognize them today. They have shown amazing effort and are an example of just how far dedication and hard work can get you. I offer my congratulations on an outstanding season, and I look forward to watching them succeed again next March.

HOMILY SUPPORTING CLEVELAND AREA HOSPITALS

HON. DENNIS J. KUCINICH

OF OHIO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, April 4, 2000

Mr. KUCINICH. Mr. Speaker, in Cleveland, Ohio we are battling to keep two area hospitals open. I insert for printing in the RECORD the following homily given by Rev. Dr. Joseph W. Skrha at Our Lady of Lourdes in Cleveland, Ohio on Sunday, March 12, 2000. This homily expresses the need for accessible healthcare for all citizens regardless of economic status, race, or religion.

Good morning:

Today is the first Sunday of Lent. Lent is a time in the Christian church during which it is suggested that we put aside activities that would distract us and to focus in on who Jesus was and is, for us, now.

Who was He?

What did He do?

What did He say?

How did He act?

To whom did He address himself?
